

Herefordshire Tree Week
28th November to 6th December 2015

Herefordshire Tree Forum invites you to...

Tuesday 24th Nov: Richie Cotterill presents i-Spy Trees of Kington.

Kington Branch Meeting Herefordshire Wildlife Trust. 7:30pm at Kington Primary School.

Saturday 28th Nov to Sun 6th Dec: Tree Week Kington Arts Exhibition "Inspired by Trees"

Local Artists at venues around town including the Library, Burton Hotel, Border Bean and Market Hall.

Saturday 28th Nov: Name that Tree!

A tree and leaves craft session for children with Hannah from Grange Court. Meet 11am at Grange Court, Leominster.

Contact: 01568 737983 or email: hannah@grangecourt.org

Saturday 28th Nov: "Log On" - Tree Arts & Snacks Activities

Bark rubbing, drawing & painting logs and leaves. Help create a collage to exhibit at the library.

Have-a-Go at Kington Market Place from 11am-4pm.

Sunday 29th Nov: Go Nuts in Kington

Help plant 5 Walnut Trees in our Community Orchard from midday in Crooked Well Meadow.

Tuesday 1st Dec: Walk in the Woods only a stone's throw from Hereford City.

"A contrast of old and new woods: Wyevale and Drovers Woods in Breinton". Meet for a 10am start finishing about 12 noon.

Limited parking at the east end of Green Lane, where the walk starts at OSGR: SO468407

Tuesday 1st Dec: Harnessing the Energy Transactions of Trees in Village Design

Jay Abraham, BSc on Integrating designed functional landscapes into the creation of sustainable human habitation. 7.30pm start.

The Community Centre, School Road, Leominster HR6 8NJ

Thursday 3rd Dec: Stockton Ride - A circular walk from Kimbolton,

Including the linear woodland of historic Stockton Ride, orchards, meadows and streams. About 5 miles, mostly flat, some stiles.

Led by Pete Blench of Leominster Walkers are Welcome. Meet 10 am at Kimbolton village hall, HR6 0HQ. Wear stout shoes or boots, bring waterproofs and a drink and snack. Ring 01568 780886 to book or arrange shared transport from Leominster.

Friday 4th Dec: Warden-led walk in Moccas Deer Park - a National Nature Reserve

One of the most diverse examples of wood pasture remaining in Britain. Ancient trees, epiphytic plants & lichens, rare fungi and invertebrates. First come, first-served (15 max). Bring packed lunch; wear suitable clothing and appropriate footwear. Starts 1pm finishes approx 3pm. Meeting point OSGR: SO338419 - entrance to Moccas Park on B4532.

Further information and bus-walk details from: transitionmatters@live.co.uk

Friday 4th Dec: Archie Miles presents "The stories behind the stunning images" from his new book, "Treescape".

FREE entry - donations to Herefordshire Tree Warden Network. 7:30pm at The Oxford Arms, Kington.

Saturday 5th Dec: A Tree-mendous tree walk!

Join Herefordshire Wildlife Trust Reserves Officer Doug Lloyd on a guided walk taking in the veteran, rare and notable trees on our Doward Reserves. These include the largest coppiced beech on record and rare whitebeams which are locally endemic.

Starting at 10am, there will be an option to finish at 1pm when the walk will pause back at the car park; or you may continue for the afternoon jaunt finishing at around 3pm. Booking is essential as places are limited. Ring 01432 356872 or complete the form online at: www.herefordshirewt.org/whats-on

Sunday 6th Dec: Planting a Community Orchard

Help plant a Damson Avenue and an Apple Grove from 11am on Kington Park, Old Eardisley Road, Kington.

Wednesday 9th Dec: In Search of Hidden Leominster

A talk by Duncan James, Expert in Leominster's historic buildings, and specialist in wooden buildings, their design and how to age them. 7.30pm at Grange Court, Leominster HR6 8NL Organised by Leominster Historical Society.

All welcome, entrance £3.00 for non-members.

For more information about these Herefordshire Tree Week activities or Herefordshire Tree Forum please visit

www.h-trees.net

h.Trees week is part of The Tree Council's National Tree Week ~ www.treecouncil.org.uk